SUPPORT DISRUPTIVE TECHNOLOGISTS.

We provide support to those actively pursuing cutting-edge innovation, a glimpse into the thinking and methods of those who are considering their own ventures, and access to those who are already firmly established in technical fields. We offer live and virtual events, think tank talks, newsletters, networking, and other programs that speak to disruption over a range of markets and industries.

Disruptive Technologists offers a variety of donation and sponsorship opportunities.

- Advertising
- Website, in-person and virtual event sponsorships
- Live event hosting
- Product donations and placements
- Foundation and corporate support
- Digital communications advertising and sponsorships
